

Rachael Babcock, currently Chief Innovation Officer at the State of TN, is an entrepreneur, technologist, and adventurer with 15+ years leading technology and business initiatives for highly innovative companies in North America, the Middle East, and Scandinavia. She currently leads a newly created Innovation Office at the state that is focused on facilitating digital innovation for the state, leading IT Transformation, and empowering community collaboration.