

Jennifer Patterson has a skill set for serving fast growing companies having worked 14 years with T-Mobile USA to help them grow from a start-up to over 42,000 employees. She served in a number of roles there leading in Sales, National Training & Development, Employee Engagement and Strategy before founding Agility Leadership Group to help other growing companies.

She is passionate about helping leaders and companies reach their full potential. Clients have seen results such as 3x sales growth, increased market share, successful turnarounds, going from worst to first in employee satisfaction, initial IPO on Nasdaq and winning J.D. Power Awards.

Jennifer coaches C-suite leaders in public and private companies to make leadership a strategic differentiator. She delivers relevant high impact development and coaching to accomplish important business outcomes. Jennifer is a gifted speaker working with groups from 20 to over 1000. She has consulted with companies in Technology, Retail, Cybersecurity, Manufacturing as well as Consulting and Investment Firms in the U.S. and around the world.

Jennifer received her M.S. in Organization Development with an international focus from George L. Graziadio School of Business and Management at Pepperdine University. She has a B.A. in Business Administration and Management. She has 18 certifications in business and leadership models and assessments.

When she is not with her clients she is an avid lover of food, wine and travel. She is passionate about learning and reads a book a week. She currently resides in Nashville, TN with her husband and 2 boys.
