

Julie Elmore, Chief Technology Officer, Dollar General

Julie Elmore is CTO at Dollar General, a 20+ billion-dollar Fortune 119 company, with 140,000+ employees. She is a balanced leader who drives pragmatic strategies to support the innovation and current and future objectives of the organization. Julie has 25 years of extensive experience including: multi-channel delivery across warehouse operations, mobile RFID, ecommerce, store operations, engineering, associate systems and building construction.

Elise Holmes, Talent Acquisition, Insight

Elise is the Corporate Talent Manager for Insight Enterprises' Digital Innovation division in Nashville. She has over ten years of combined HR and recruitment experience with a demonstrated history of working in the information technology and services industry. Her areas of expertise include both talent acquisition and talent experience. Elise serves on the WITT Board as Director of Scholarships and has been an active member of the Nashville technology community for the last seven years. She has a Master of Science in Information Technology from Lipscomb University and received her bachelor's from the University of Alabama.

Lindsey Morgan, Senior Director, Consulting Services, Vaco

Lindsey Morgan is currently a Senior Director of Technology Consulting Services for Vaco, where she helps connect her clients with talent on a project basis. She was born and raised in Hendersonville, TN and has enjoyed watching Nashville and the tech scene grow over the last 6 years. When she is not working, she enjoys checking out new restaurants, traveling, scuba diving, and spending time with her family and dog, Piper.

Steve Cherry, VP of Corporate Outreach, Greater Nashville Technology Council

Steve Cherry is the VP of Corporate Outreach for the Greater Nashville Technology Council. In this role he focuses on the growth of the ApprentiTN program and engaging with existing and future NTC member organization. Before joining the NTC, Steve founded and grew multiple healthcare technology companies. He also was VP IT with Community Health Systems and has held IT leadership roles within the healthcare and technology industries. He has been a volunteer committee member in the past for the Council on Aging - Discover Franklin program and is currently a committee member of the Williamson County Parks and Recreation – Discover Williamson program. Steve received his Marketing, BBA degree from Georgia State University. He is a Certified Professional in Healthcare Information & Management Systems and is a HIMSS Fellow.

Marla Lamont, WITT Board Member - Immediate Past President
Director of Business Development, Relode

Marla is the Director of Business Development for Relode, a crowd sourced recruiting company based in Nashville. She has over fifteen years' experience in talent acquisition working both internally for large organizations such as HCA and for third party staffing agencies. Her areas of expertise are within IT and Healthcare talent acquisition strategy and leading recruiting teams. Marla serves on the WITT Board as Immediate Past President and has been on the board for 8 years. She has a MBA from Lipscomb University and received her bachelor's degree from MTSU.